

Experiment Participants Needed!

The Phonetics Laboratory in the Department of Linguistics is looking for participants in a research project about the production and perception of the English language.

The experiment will last 3.5 hours, spread out over three sessions on three separate days, in [[Building]]. You will receive $35 for completing the whole experiment!

You qualify for participation if:

- American English is your first language.
- You are over 18 years old.
- You are not a Linguistics Major.
- You have not taken any high level linguistics coursework.
- You have no hearing or speaking problems, and have normal or corrected to normal eyesight.

If you have any additional questions, contact NAME at EMAIL ADDRESS.

To sign up, email [EMAIL ADDRESS] with some times you'll be available in the next week or two, and we'll set up your time.
